Contact: Wendy Musco, Office Administrator 703-273-2288

The Northern Virginia law firm of McCandlish Lillard is pleased to announce that R. Peyton Mahaffey was recently elected to the Virginia Bar Association's Board of Governors.

Mr. Mahaffey is President, Managing Partner, and a member of the Executive Committee of McCandlish Lillard. His practice focuses on civil litigation, including business, corporate, employment, commercial, fiduciary, and many other types of complex litigation. Mr. Mahaffey graduated from the University of Virginia with High Distinction and its Law School, and lives in Oak Hill.

The Virginia Bar Association is Virginia's oldest and largest statewide voluntary organization of lawyers and judges. The Board of Governors manages the business of the Association. "Peyton's extraordinary work ethic and attention to detail has served our Firm's clients well for more than thirty-five years. He will bring those same qualities to his work with the VBA while continuing to lead our Firm and its litigation section," said Ralph M. Tener, McCandlish Lillard's Chairman and Treasurer.

McCandlish Lillard has 24 attorneys, with offices in Fairfax and Leesburg. The law firm has been meeting the legal needs of businesses and individuals in Northern Virginia and throughout the Commonwealth for more than 100 years. For more information regarding McCandlish Lillard, either call Mr. Tener at the phone number above, or the firm at 703-273-2288, or visit its website at www.mccandlishlawyers.com.
